

END

FINAL OBSTACLE – THE CLIMAX

LESSON:

RESOLUTION:

The resolution is the final image the audience is left with, where we see how the story comes to an end and where all the pieces land.

TIP

The Climax should be the most exciting and dramatic part of your story. This can be the moment where we see the protagonist overcome their last obstacle or they might not be successful and learn something by not getting what they want.